

Which Elevatus Training Curriculum is Right for You?

A comparison guide to assist you in making the decision.

Sexuality Education for People with Developmental Disabilities

Building Healthy Relationships at Work for People with Developmental Disabilities

Curriculum Overview:

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| Price | $299 | $195 |
| Evidence/trauma informed | ✓ | ✓ |
| Inclusive language, all gender identities & expressions represented | ✓ | ✓ |
| Number of lessons included: | 22 | 12 |
| Scenarios focused on: | General sexuality education | Worksite specific |
| Designed for instructors to teach people with I/DD | Sexuality educators, special educators, developmental disability staff, DSPs, trainers | Instructors, job coaches, empl. first staff, anyone who is part of a competitive, integrated empl. program |
| Instructor manual included | ✓ | ✓ |
| Handouts, teaching tools, learning objective assessment | ✓ | ✓ |
| Curriculum Topics: | | |
| Types of relationships, public vs private, friendship, communication, decision making, gender identity & expression, moving from friend to partner/sweetheart, healthy/unhealthy relationships | ✓ | ✓ |
| Internet, social media, communication, being in a romantic/sexual relationships, sexual feelings & acts, decision making about sex, avoiding pregnancy, children, STIs, when your relationship goes bad, body parts, caring for your body | ✓ | ✗ |
| Positive relationships at work (building healthy relationships with co-workers, customers, etc.), healthy boundaries at work (includes sexual harassment) | ✗ | ✓ |

Still not sure? We're here to help, email support@elevatustraining.com for more information.