

HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS: VIDEO & QUESTIONS

The video clip is from CNN's love story series. The series features many different types of love relationships including Marissa and John's love story titled, Couple with Down Syndrome: 'Love is love.' It is six minutes long and here are some questions that you could ask participants in your classes to process the video:

Watch Love Story from CNN here:

<https://www.facebook.com/LoveStoryCNN/videos/143843409541851/>

Ask these questions:

What do you think is positive about Marissa and John's relationship?

How do they talk about each other and treat each other?

What do they like to do together?

What struggles do you think they may have?

Or what is hard about their relationship?

What do they mean when they say "Love is Love?"

What questions would you want to ask them about relationships and sexuality?

What did the parents and staff people do to support this relationship?

What did you learn about sexuality and relationships from watching this video?